

The Earl Carl Institute for Legal & Social Policy
&
The Institute for International & Immigration Law

Immigration Reform: Debunking the Myths

Debunking the Myths Surrounding Immigration Reform

Friday, April 3, 2009

9:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M

Located on the Campus of Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law

3100 Cleburne Street

Houston, Texas 77004

MCLE CREDIT HOURS: 3.00 - ETHICS: 1.00

Fee: $25:00 (admission free for non-attorneys)

Overview:

9:00A.M. - 10:00 A.M.

Legal and Ethical Considerations of Immigration

FACT or MYTH?

- Undocumented people have the same rights as Americans
- It is easy to acquire citizenship in the United States
- All undocumented people in the United States came willingly

10:00 A.M.-11:00 A.M.

African American & Hispanic Relations

FACT or MYTH?

- The African American community does not favor immigration reform
- Hispanics will not and do not vote for African Americans who seek elected positions and vice versa
- African Americans and Hispanics cannot peacefully co-exist

11:00A.M. -12:00 P.M.

Immigration and Labor

FACT or MYTH?

- Undocumented workers take jobs from Americans
- Undocumented Workers do not pay taxes and are a burden on the economy, the healthcare and education systems
- Employer sanctions work

Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law is an accredited sponsor approved by the State Bar of Texas Committee on MCLE

